Special Education

The Bureau of Special Education presented with district representatives in a panel discussion "Improving Family-School Partnerships in Special Education: Strategies that Work" at the NH Partnerships for Education Conference. The panel presentation showcased how different districts have approached improving family -school partnerships in special education and the positive impact it has had on districts. In this picture the panel members included Jennifer Hutchinson, Merrimack School District; Barbara Publicover, Parent Support Group Leader, Merrimack School District; Marie Fay, Director of Student Support Services, White Mountain Regional School District, and Ronda Gregg, Director of Special Services, Litchfield School District.

The mission of Special Education is to improve educational outcomes for children and youth with disabilities by providing and promoting leadership, technical assistance and collaboration statewide.

Special Education provides oversight and implementation of federal and state laws that ensure a free appropriate public education for all children and youth with disabilities in New Hampshire. more...
